

BARE BARBIES

Mr & Mrs Roulette

GAME INSTRUCTIONS & MATERIALS

Summary

The stag must answer a series of questions to see how well he really knows his woman. There are consequences for getting an answer right or wrong.

How to play

- [1] In advance of the event, print out the Mr & Mrs Roulette Questions, and have the bride answer each question.
- [2] At the event, fill 14 shot glasses with water, and the rest with vodka or gin. Adjust this ratio depending on the level of guests' intoxication. You can use jelly shots or marshmallows (chubby bunnies) for a non-alcoholic option.
- [3] Gather all guests around. Sit the stag on a chair in the front/centre of the room, facing the guests.
- [4] The stag will be quizzed based on the bride's answers. Either you or your Bare Barbie can host this quiz.
- [5] To get an answer correct, the stag must answer as the bride did. The stag only gets the point for giving the same response that the bride did.
- [6] For each question the stag gets right, he nominates a shot. For every wrong answer, he takes a shot.

Required materials
